

EVA Park Open Day

Wednesday 25th November 2015: 1:30pm - 4pm

City University London, Room ELG10, Drysdale Building (lower ground floor)

EVA Park is a multi-user virtual world that gives people with aphasia unique opportunities to practise their speech and establish social connections. Funded by the Stroke Association, EVA Park was created at City University London by a multidisciplinary team of usability experts, speech and language therapy researchers and consultants with aphasia.

Please join us for a showcase event for speech and language therapists who would like to find out more about EVA Park.

In the session you will:

- Find out how people with aphasia have benefitted from using EVA Park
- Find out what our future plans are
- Have a go in EVA Park
- Tell us what you think of EVA Park

For more information, and to confirm your place please e-mail eva@city.ac.uk

We look forward to seeing you!

Also check out the website: <http://smcse.city.ac.uk/eva/>